With Five-Year Sales Growth of 1287% ~*

Atlanta (August 20th, 2007) – Inc. magazine this week released its 26th annual Inc. 500 ranking of the fastest-growing private companies in the country. Management Consulting Services Company, Teracore, Inc., ranks No. 39 on the list, with five-year sales growth of 1287%. The Inc. 500 can be found in the September issue, which appears on newsstands August 23rd.

Teracore, Inc. is a management consulting and information technology (IT) services consulting firm with offices in Washington, DC, Atlanta, GA, and Chicago, IL. Teracore provides high value business consulting services to the Federal Government. Teracore consultants average more than 15 years of professional experience and approximately three-quarters of the firm's staff have advanced degrees in business or technology. Teracore has built its reputation by completing projects for the Department of Defense, US Air Force and the Department of Agriculture that successfully integrated business consulting knowledge, process expertise, and IT to obtain their clients' desired results.

Said CEO Luis Perez, "The Teracore team is extremely excited to have been selected for this prestigious award, and it reflects strongly on all of the hard work that took place to get us to where we are." Steve Hangartner, Managing Partner of Teracore added, "As our people have done from the beginning, we are already focusing on the next five years of growth so we can push Teracore to the next level of business success."

The Inc. 500 ranks privately held companies according to year-over-year sales growth from 2002 to 2006. With approximately 75% of all new job creation in the U.S. coming from entrepreneurial businesses, the Inc. 500 opens a window onto the companies and industries that are driving the economy forward. Over the years, the Inc. 500 has identified the next generation of world-class companies, with Microsoft, Stonyfield Farms, Timberland, Oracle, The Princeton Review, Morningstar, Jamba Juice, Gateway, E*Trade, Intuit, and Domino's Pizza all appearing on the list before they became industry powerhouses.
